

Graham Clark

Graham is the Chief Executive of Asia Affinity Holdings Ltd., a diversified financial services company headquartered in Hong Kong, with operating subsidiaries in Japan, Singapore, Malaysia, and Indonesia.

Graham started his career with a major UK insurance broker and in 1974 was posted to their Japan office. He has remained in Asia ever since and over the course of the intervening 44 years has lived and built insurance businesses in Japan, Thailand, Malaysia and a regional wholesale broking business in Singapore.

In 2000 Graham launched his own business focused on distribution and providing business process outsourcing and contact centre solutions for the financial services sector in Asia.

Asia Affinity is focused on providing growth and protection solutions, both non-marine and marine to the SME and Micro communities in Asia. Through their subsidiary companies, Asia Affinity Holdings Ltd., is active in the Mutual Aid and Cooperative sectors in Japan; provides underwriting and sustainable solutions for Coastal communities through their marine businesses and in 2016 launched a Micro Insurance business to support sustainable community development, and resilience post disaster, in South East Asia.
