

Jackelyn P. Ballena

Vice President for Operations (Life)

1 Cooperative Insurance System of the Philippines Life and General Insurance (1CISP)

Jackelyn is currently the Vice President for Operations of the Life Division of 1 Cooperative Insurance System of the Philippines Life and General Insurance or simply 1CISP. She has been in the cooperative movement for more than eight (8) years starting her career in the said cooperative as a Trainer and then head of the Human Resources Department with role in Organizational Development until she was promoted in her latest position this January of 2018. She has been vital in ensuring the growth, engagement, and organizational commitment of the best asset of their organization, its employees.

With the successful program designs on people management and development that she made for 1CISP, Jackelyn was given the opportunity to attend the 2017 Biennial Conference held in London and from there her journey as a Young Leader unfolds.
