

Manuel NGO , MD

Director – International Mobility and Operations Department

Dr Manuel Ngo is in charge with the International Mobility and Operations Department at INTER MUTUELLES ASSISTANCE, one of the leading groups in France and the world number 5 in the assistance sector.

For 5 years, Manuel has been dedicated to the development of this organization of the social and solidarity-based economy. Previously, he assumed senior positions in the insurance and assistance sectors. From 1998 up to 2002, he was Managing Director of AXA Assistance Co Ltd in Thailand. From 2001 up to 2009, Manuel was a strategy consultant working for public hospitals. In 2009, he joined the health department at HENNER Group to become their Prevention and Medical Services Director.

Manuel holds an MBA from HEC Paris Business School where he graduated in 1997. He is also a Doctor in Medicine from Paris VI University (1991).