

Arup Chatterjee
Principal Financial Sector Specialist
Sustainable Development and Climate Change Department
Asian Development Bank

Mr. Arup Chatterjee has over two and half decades of experience in the operational, regulatory and policy aspects of the insurance sector for financial sector reform and development, regulatory and supervisory oversight architecture, pension and health insurance reforms, disaster risk financing, agriculture insurance, public private partnerships, and financial inclusion in Asian, African and Latin American countries.

In his current role he is responsible for leading financial sector development initiatives in the area of insurance, private pensions and contractual savings, and financial inclusion. His technical assistance and program development work program focuses on insurance and pension's market development, regulations, implementation of international financial standards and supervisory capacity building, base of the pyramid opportunities and consumer protection. He chairs the Joint Working Group of the International Association of Insurance Supervisors (IAIS) and the Islamic Financial Services Board on Microtakaful, the ADB Working Group on Disaster Risk Financing and Insurance and sits on the Regulatory Advisory Committee of the Microinsurance Network.

Mr. Chatterjee has earlier served as Principal Administrator of the IAIS at the Bank for International Settlements in Basel, Switzerland and as Joint Director of Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority, India.

An honors graduate in Economics from University of Delhi, Mr. Chatterjee holds dual Masters - in International Economics from School of International Studies, Jawaharlal Nehru University; and in International Business Management from Indian Institute of Foreign Trade.